

WHITE RIVER CELEBRATION AND STEWARDSHIP FUNDRAISER

SEPTEMBER 29, 2015
5:30 pm - 8:30 pm

The culminating event of the White River Festival, the White River Celebration and Stewardship Fundraiser, will be held on September 29, 2015 at The Crane Bay in Indianapolis. The Crane Bay is a trendy, urban industrial space in downtown Indianapolis that is the perfect fit for this creative event. Join us as we celebrate the White River and promote everyone's commitment to water stewardship!

A UNIQUE EVENT

This event will be a chance for you to explore and display your creative abilities alongside other professionals and river enthusiasts in a live auction atmosphere.

Each table of 8 will work together as a team to build a masterpiece inspired by the treasures discovered during our annual river clean-ups!

Artists and other experts, supplies, and interesting materials will be available to purchase in a live auction. You'll be given instructions, advice and plenty of time to make a special piece that celebrates our connection to and value of the White River.
